ORIGAMI PAPER ART WORKSHOP

Date: 8th February, 2022

Venue: VSPM's College of Physiotherapy

Invitation was sent to Mr. Tokaram (Pali, Rajasthan) on 4th February, 2022 to conduct an informative session on utilization of waste paper. Mr. Tokaram came to VSPM's College of Physiotherapy on 8th February, 2022. He started session at 2.00 pm in classroom – I. He gave presentation on utilization of waste paper into creative art. He demonstrated his superior talent of making many creative things like flower, Christmas tree, decorative toran, decorative bird and many other arts from paper. He demonstrated in simple yet effective way to make paper art from waste paper. He taught in very easy way to students, teaching staff and non-teaching staff. Everyone was amazed to see the skills of Mr. Tokaram that how creatively he transformed a simple piece of paper into different types of attractive crafts simply by folding and cutting. This activity triggered everyone's imagination and enhanced their artistic skills. He taught for 1 hour and everyone was impressed and admired his effort. This is good idea to celebrate festival and function in an Eco-Friendly way. A total collection of 1100 rupees was donated to Mr. Tokaram which will then be further utilised for the well being of blinds. The donation amount was collected through purchasing his craft books by the students and teachers. At the end of session college gave him appreciation letter for his talented quality of paper making art.
