"ECO FRIENDLY RAKHI COMPETITION"

Date of competition: 30th August, 2022

Venue: VSPM's College Of Physiotherapy

A symbol of brother-sister love - "Raksha Bandhan", a festival of social and family togetherness is celebrated with joy and happiness. College students council organized "Eco friendly Rakhi Competition" for students in the month of August, 2022. Students were instructed to make Eco friendly Rakhi at home and submit in college till 25th August, 2022. 18 entries came for Rakhi competition from UG and PG students. Students came up with innovative and creative ideas for eco friendly Rakhi. Mrs. Julie Bharbat, an Artist in NKPSIMS, Nagpur was invited to be judge for competition on 30th August, 2022. She judged the competition and gave her valuable opinion. Judge and all teaching with non teaching staff were provided refreshments. Three winners and three consolation prizes were decided according to judge choice. All students who selected in category of winners and consolation prizes were appreciated with cash prize and certificates. Certificates and cash prizes were distributed by the hands of Mrs. Julie Bharbat and Dr. Y. Praveen sir. Participants were also appreciated with e-certificates. Dr. Y. Praveen also decided to display selected Rakhies on board. Judge, Mrs. Julie Bharbat was also appreciated by certificate for her valuable time and effort. At the end, Dr. Y. Praveen gave vote of thanks to members of college student council for conducting such activity for students.
