Virtual Dandiya Competition

Students planned an event during navratri days, which was " Virtual Dandiya Competition' 20". This event was held on 20th October, 2020. Online posters and messages were circulated among the various faculties of the campus. All the guidelines for the competition were provided in a WhatsApp group which was formed of all the SWA members plus the contestants who filled the online form for participation. Dates of registration were 16th October to 19th October. Dates were given to them so that they could send a short video of their dandiya with the focus of judgement being the dance steps, the costume and the expressions. After the videos were submitted the results were decided by judge – Dr. Priyanka Deshmukh and Mrs. Kesha Shah. They declared result on 23rd October. The winners were awarded with an online certificate. The winners were:

- First winner was Pratiksha Zodape
- Second winner was Khushi Gelda
- Third was winner Rachana chakole

The event was conducted successfully as after a long period of lockdown, participants got some way of involvement in this kind of interesting activity.
